

from Dallas, Eric Galvan, near death, he ran immediately to his side. Pulling him to safety and applying tourniquets on both his lost legs and hand, he proceeded to run to Cpl. Wheeler who was hit by shrapnel from the IED. But on the way he stepped on an IED himself, which threw him 10 ft. into the air. Losing both of his legs and parts of his fingers, his new battle had just begun. Josh joined the Marines in June of 2004, and has done tours in both Iraq and Afghanistan. He was married to his wife Rachael, in November 2004, and while on his 31st MEU in July of 2006 his baby boy Sean was born. Its only been only a few short weeks, but his will to live and his attitude would make any Marine proud. Hooo Rah! And with his family's support, these quiet unsung heroes. . . . Joshua has amazed us to see how far and how fast he has come. I place this tribute to Sgt. Joshua Yarbrough, penned by Albert Caswell in his honor.

ALL IN DARKNESS'S LIGHT

All
All In Darkness's Light
All in that fight!
But, comes something so very special
oh so very bright!
All in the times of war, all in such hearts of faith that which so insures!
That which so ignites!
But come such men of honor, whose hearts
take flight!
While, all around them such hell so breaks!
YOU GO I GO!
As its there, they will not so hesitate!
United States Marines, whose own most precious lives will so forsake!
All In The Darkness of Evil's Light, both day and night!
Armed with but that kind of courage, which so make's the Angel's hearts so break!
All In The Darkness of War's, Most Evil
Light
All in its fog, but comes such souls which burn so bright!
Who so lead the way, to turn that darkness into the light!
Because of them, and you Joshua so many of your Brothers In Arms live on this night!
Who by all of your most gallant acts, but buy the time and to so save their lives!
Is that but not what Heaven is for?
All in that blood which binds you, you go ever forth!
By all of their most heroic deeds, Bless Them
All My Lord God Speed, God Speed!
For all of their Brothers In Arms, they die
and bleed!
While, all in the face of hell Sargent's die and Sargent's lead!
As have you Joshua, running into that face of death we see!
Armed with but only your most heroic creed!
To help a Marine all in need, all in your most magnificent shades of green!
Damn right you did, with your heart of gold Texas T!
For you are a United States Marine!
As the eyes of Texas are upon you Josh, and we so like what we so see!
As it was on that day in June, when your two strong legs were so taken away After one Marine's life you had so saved, to another one you ran that day
As when a bomb went off, as you looked down all at the cost!
All at what this war had made!
As on the morning when you awoke, and your fine heart to you so spoke!
As you so wiped all of those tears away, as from your heart you invoked
The will to live, as you so realized that all that you so had left was but hope!

As you so reached so deep down inside, to find the strength to so cope!
For you had so much to so live for, a fine wife and son as you went off to war
And now also too for all of your Brothers In Arms, who live no more!
As now you have new mountains to so climb,
for you did not die!
As somehow once again my Son, the courage
you will so find!
Already, so far you have so come as Thy Will Be Done!
For from your Heart of Texas, your courage comes
For you will walk, and you will run!
As you Marine, so shine like the morning sun!
And you Will Teach Us And You Will Beseech Us as You So Reach
Each and Everyone!
Step by step, day by day Marine,
you're already on your way!
And if I ever have a son, I wish his heart could be as big as your one!
You United States Marine, you're one of the best things this country has ever seen!
As one day up in Heaven you will run!
To our Lord God, when he so says
"come here my son!"
Because in your life Joshua, you would not so let the darkness overcome!
As your heart of faith, and your soul of courage has shone so bright!
All, In Darkness's Light to lead us all the way back home!
All In Darkness's Light!
And that's just the way it is.

THE INTRODUCTION OF THE HA- WAIIAN HOMEOWNERSHIP OP- PORTUNITIES ACT OF 2011

HON. MAZIE K. HIRONO

OF HAWAII

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 26, 2011

Ms. HIRONO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce the Hawaiian Homeownership Opportunities Act of 2011. I would like to thank Congresswoman COLLEEN HANABUSA and Congressman DON YOUNG for cosponsoring this important bill.

This bill does two things. First, it reauthorizes a section of the Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act (NAHASDA) that supports programs that create homeownership opportunities for low-income Native Hawaiian families on Hawaiian Home Lands. Second, it would continue and expand access to U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) section 184a loan guarantees, which would reduce the cost of homeownership for low-income Native Hawaiian families and would also reduce risk by lowering monthly mortgage payments.

The Congress has a long and bipartisan history of supporting Native Hawaiian housing issues. The Hawaiian Homeownership Opportunities Act of 2011 continues that tradition.

Passed by Congress in 1996, NAHASDA reauthorized a system of housing assistance provided to tribes by HUD through the Indian Housing Block Grant program. This program provides funds directly to tribes for housing development and other new approaches to create housing.

In 2000, the Native Hawaiian Housing Block Grant was established under NAHASDA to allow another indigenous group support for affordable housing activities. Funds for this grant are administered by the State of Hawaii Department of Hawaiian Home Lands, the entity charged with carrying out the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act. The funds are used primarily to develop infrastructure on Hawaiian Home Lands, which tend to be in the most isolated parts of the state.

In 1921, Congress passed the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act with the purpose of establishing a homesteading program to place eligible Native Hawaiians on lands in Hawaii designated for such purpose. The law was passed at the urging of the Territory of Hawaii's Delegate to Congress, Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalaniana'ole. Some 204,000 acres were set aside for the purpose of providing Native Hawaiians with land.

With the passage of the Statehood Act of 1959, the control and administration of the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act was transferred from the federal government to the newly formed State of Hawaii. The Department of Hawaiian Home Lands was created in 1960 to administer the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act.

While homeownership rates in Hawaii are typically lower than national rates, homeownership rates for Native Hawaiians in the state are even lower. In Honolulu, 38 percent of Native Hawaiians own their homes compared with 48 percent for non-natives. This disparity continues in other areas of Hawaii, where 51 percent of Native Hawaiians own their homes compared with 60 percent for non-natives.

Native Hawaiian households in Hawaii are also more likely to be low-income than non-native households. Owner households on Hawaiian home lands are among the poorest of Native Hawaiian households with approximately 25 percent having incomes at or below 50 percent of the median income for the given area.

There is a continued need for the Native Hawaiian Housing Block Grant. I urge my colleagues to support the Hawaiian Homeownership Opportunities Act of 2011.

Mahalo nui loa (thank you very much).
